and I were very touched and proud to have helped out.”

The Alamo chapter of Safari Club International paid for the plane tickets for Samantha and her dad. Mike Myrick of Myrick Taxidermy in Lometa, Texas donated the mounting for the children. This hunt was filmed for an upcoming television series that U.S.S.A. and Texas Deer Association are working on, we will keep you posted when it will air.

This weekend U.S.S.A.’s president will be joining thirteen terminal/disabled children for a deer hunt in Sahara Woods in southern Illinois. These children will be coming from nine states to attend this hunt and their guides will be members of the Illinois Bowhunters Society (IBS). Their hunting licenses were donated by the Illinois governor and Illinois DNR.

If you know of a youth who may qualify for a hunt, or would like to become involved in anyway, please call 715-884-2256, or visit USSA on the web at www.childswish.com.
