

Tennessee Turkey Hunt

USSA is organizing its 2nd annual group turkey hunt for children aged between 8 and 16 years with disabilities or life-threatening illnesses in Gordonsville, TN. This event is a learn-to-hunt, so the hunter must have yet to harvest a turkey to participate. Although the hunter safety course is not mandatory, it is recommended that your child take the course. All lodging, meals, and supplies will be provided at no cost, but lodging is limited to a parent, grandparent, or other family member who will act as an assisted mentor. To register for this event, please call (800) 518-8019 or email and submit a USSA youth application before the event. If you have any questions or concerns, please get in touch with the director and Tennessee Rep, Bill Cothron, at (615) 670-4710 or bccothron5607@yahoo.com.
